CONFIGURATION OF WIRELESS LAN

AIM :

Configuration of wireless LAN using cisco Packet Tracer.

Student Observation Questions :-

a) what is SSID of a wireless source?

SSID (Service Set Identifies) is the name of a wireless network. It is used to uniquely identify a wireless LAN.

b) What is a security key in a wireless router?

A security key is a wireless router is a password or encryption key used to secure a wireless network.

Result :

Thus, a wireless LAN has been configured using cisco packet Tracer and the output is verified.